PIERCE COUNTY MEANS BUSINESS

March 2023 | No. 274 | ChooseTacomaPierce.org

Furthering our work: A message from Lisa Goodman, EDB Board Chair and Benaroya Company Executive Team

I'm honored to take the reins as chair of the EDB board and continue the organization's work to attract companies in an equitable way. We've already begun to expand diversity within the organization and better serve Pierce County's BIPOC and diverse-owned businesses. Building upon this work will help us better reflect the community and make the South Sound a better place to live, work and do business.

Companies choose Pierce County because of its abundant amenities and benefits that help businesses thrive. I am proud to count the Centeris South Hill Data Center among them. Since receiving certification in September 2022 that enables our eligible customers and tenants to participate in the state's urban sales tax exemption program, we've seen an increase in interest from companies of all sizes from across sectors, both locally and globally, from gaming to health care to the military to disaster recovery.

What we do is just one small piece of what makes Pierce County a business destination and an inclusive community for all.

Women who lead

The EDB recently asked some of region's prominent female leaders to share their thoughts for women seeking similar paths.

Book of the month

Herb Simon, partner with Simon Johnson LLC, EDB Executive Committee member and past chair, recommends Putin by Philip Short.

"Incredible biography that includes background history about Russia and how it shaped Putin's character and approach to other countries. Russia's war on Ukraine is a direct extension of his dangerous world view."
